

Stoke Elite T.C

STOKE ELITE

TRAMPOLINE CLUB

December 2009

Newsletter 2

New Competitors.

Daniel Griffiths and Ellie Mae Griffiths will be competing in their first competition EVER in January, good luck to you both! :)

We also have seen our recreational classes grow and have some promising youngsters developing!

Coaching and Judging

Lots of people have sat their judging course - Nikita Stribling, Claire Thomas and Kay Woolrich. Claire sat her county judging course. Well done to you all and thank you to Kay for driving them all :) Claire has also completed her level 2 coaching course, and took Niamh to Lincoln to complete her practical and theory assessments well done Claire.

Kate has started her level three course and took Georgia, Lewis and Aaron who were outstanding and represented the club well. Well dressed, well behaved and learnt lots the club is very pleased with you all :)

BOUNCERS go BOWLING!

As a Christmas treat Laura arranged for us all to go bowling at festival park. Whilst bowling some hidden talents were revealed lots of strikes and some very competitive parents, coaches and children! Louise revealed her soft side and actually let us all go to Mc Donald's for tea! Thanks Laura and Lou! :)

Child Protection

The club also paid for all of our coaches to attend Child Protection course; this is seen as outstanding practice from British Gymnastics. Also Beverley Key attended this course in order for her to become one of our registered Welfare Officers; thanks all.

New competition season coming up, lots of new competitors and people competing at higher grades. Good luck everyone!

By Lucy Alcock